

Tom Anger, EMT, JD - Tom is an EMT and also a lawyer who has spent most of his career representing government officials. He has extensive trial experience in State and federal court. He also has gained experience in hospital-based and pre-hospital emergency care in Denver, Chicago, Delaware County and Israel. Tom currently works as an Assistant Attorney General.

Nathan Broman, IAAI-CFI, CFEI - Nathan Broman is a Fire Investigator who has 25 years of experience in the fire investigation industry. He recently retired from the fire service after 28 years, and has been employed full-time in the private sector with Donan Fire Investigations for four years as an IAAI-Certified Fire Investigator and NAFI-Certified Fire and Explosion Investigator serving the greater Cincinnati region. He has attended an extensive number of courses, seminars and conferences on fire and arson investigation, and is a 20+ year member of the Greater Cincinnati Regional Arson and Fire Investigators Seminar Committee.

Chuck Brooks, EMT-T - Chuck is currently assigned as a Lieutenant EMS Coordinator in Ohio with over 35 years experience as a FF/EMT Paramedic. Additionally Chuck has over 18 years experience as a Flight Paramedic. He is assigned as TEMS Team Leader for two Ohio SWAT/SRT Teams.

Anthony Cellitti, CCEMTP, NREMT-P, ATF - Tony is the EMS System Coordinator for Rock River Region EMS System – Rockford Health System and a fire fighter III for Northwest Fire Protection District both in Rockford, IL. Tony is a recognized speaker nationally and internationally and has been involved in EMS / Fire service for over 22 years. He has assisted with the second edition ACCESS textbook and sixth edition ITLS for Prehospital Care Providers manual.

Rita Chambers, BBA, NRP - Rita is the Quality Assurance Coordinator for Akron Fire EMS. She has been a nationally registered paramedic for 35 years. She is an Ohio ITLS Affiliate Faculty, Regional Coordinator, Advisory Board Member, Instructor and Course Coordinator. She also teaches GEMS, SCOPE, all AHA Courses and is an Ohio EMS Instructor and Program coordinator.

Tony Davis, FI - Battalion Chief Tony Davis has served the fire service for 26 years. Chief Davis is a State of Ohio Fire Instructor. Chief Davis is the Direct and Regional Course Coordinator for the Ohio Fire Academy. Chief Davis works for Springfield Township Fire Dept and Harrison Twp. Fire Dept.

Susan Forgacs, RN, Paramedic, BSN - Susan Forgacs received her BSN from Kent State University. She worked 26+ years at Robinson Memorial Hospital and 16 years as an EMS Educator. Susan went to Paramedic school at Akron General Medical Center. She now works as a Public Health Nurse at Portage County Health Department

Mary Ann Forrester, BSN, RN, NRP - Mary Ann Forrester is a Registered Nurse and Nationally Registered Paramedic. She received her BSN from Kent State University in Kent, OH and worked at Akron Children's Hospital, pediatric ICU/Critical Care. Mary Ann is a CCRN alumnus and has been teaching critical care and EMS programs for many years. Her paramedic training was earned from SUMMA Health System in Akron, Ohio. She worked for 13 years for the Valley City Fire Department and was awarded Ohio's EMS Education of the Year.

Terry Foster, RN - Terry has a Master's degree in Critical-Care and Trauma Nursing from the University of Cincinnati College of Nursing and Health. Terry has authored more than 35 professional publications in various textbooks, nursing, and healthcare journals. He has lectured on a wide variety of clinical topics covering all 50 states by the time he turned 50 years old. In 2010, Terry played himself on an episode of TLC's TV program, "Untold Stories of the ER".

Richard George, MD, MSPH, FACS – Dr. George is the Division of Trauma Chief and the ICU Surgical Director for Summa Akron City Hospital.

Nadi Graham, EMT-T - Nadi has served with the Ohio State Highway Patrol for 15 years. He has 8 years experience with the patrol's SRT, and assigned as Lead Tactical Medic for 6 years.

Deanna Harris, RN, BSN, CEN, EMT, CMTE - Deanna began her career as a volunteer firefighter/EMT. From there she went to nursing school and earned her BSN in 1992. She currently is a flight nurse with Cleveland Metro Life Flight. Deanna chairs the Emergency Medicine, Fire and Transport Services Board for the State of Ohio.

Mike Helbock, MICP, NRP - Mike is currently a Washington State Certified/Nationally Registered Senior Paramedic and the Director of EMS Training and Education - EMS Associates and a Clinical Educator in Prehospital Medicine at University of Washington School of Medicine, Division of Emergency Medicine. Mike worked for 20 years as a firefighter/paramedic for the City of Bellevue Fire Department (Washington). As a national speaker, Mike has shared his experience(s) in Prehospital medicine to more than 500,000 students over the past 30 years. Mike is a nationally/internationally published author and an originator for many of the standard emergency medical practices and training procedures that are incorporated into the EMS community today including the popular, "SICK/NOT SICK" approach to patient care.

Chris Hudspeth, EMT-T - Chris (USMC/MSGT, Ret.) has multiple combat tours in Desert Shield, Desert Storm, Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom. In 1996 became a Nationally Registered EMT-B to begin working in the EMS field and continued on with higher education in Fire/EMS. In 2001 became a Firefighter/Paramedic with a medium sized city's fire department. Currently assigned to a police department Special Weapons and Tactics team as the Lead Tactical Paramedic and has been assigned to the team since 2005. Chris is also a Special Operation Medical Associations (SOMA) member.

Robert Keener, BS, EMT-P, FI, EMSI – Robert has been with the Akron Fire Department for 23 years and with the Springfield Township Fire Department for 17 years. He is a charter member and instructor for AFD-TROT (Technical Rescue Team). Robert is a part of the Ohio Region 5 USAR Team and served as a safety forces liaison for PGA Bridgestone Invitational Tournament.

Christopher Menapace, BBA, OFE – Christopher is currently the Assistant Fire Chief with the Whitehall Division of Fire. Prior to the position he was the Fire Chief at the Mount Vernon Fire Department. Christopher has a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration for the Mount Vernon Nazarene University and is a graduate of OFE Class IX.

Lou Ann Metz, BS, NRP, OFE - Lou Ann is the Division Chief for the Stow Fire Department. She has 30 years of EMS experience and 25 years as an EMS instructor. She is a nationally registered paramedic, ITLS Affiliate Faculty member and an Ohio EMS, ITLS ACLS, PALS and GEMS instructor. She is a 2011 Graduate of the Ohio Fire Executive Program. In 2008 she received the Frank Giampetro Distinguished EMS Educator Award. In 2011 she was bestowed with the Mayer Glimcher Award for outstanding trauma education. Lou Ann is also a national speaker on Infection Control and an EMS/Fire Service Infection Control Consultant.

Kirk Mittelman, M.Ed, NRP - Kirk is a 35-year veteran in the provision of Public Safety, having retired as a Police Officer from Provo City P.D. in 2001 and retiring (again) as a Paramedic Captain for Eagle Mountain Fire Department in 2011. Kirk has received various awards in his Public Safety career including the Purple Heart, Dr. Keith Hooker Lifetime Achievement Award and the Dr. Robert Hogan EMS Award. Kirk is currently the Director of the Mt. Nebo/University of Utah Paramedic Program and co-owner of Mt. Nebo Training.

Lyn Nofziger, FI - Captain Lyn Nofziger has served the fire service for 30 years. Captain Nofziger is a State of Ohio Fire Instructor. Captain Nofziger is a Fire Instructor for the Ohio Fire Academy. Captain Nofziger works for the Upper Arlington Fire Dept.

Amy Raubenolt, MD, MPH, MEd - Dr. Raubenolt is currently the Associate Medical Director for Akron Fire Department, Medical Director for AFD SWAT/TEMS and Medical Director for Akron General Paramedic Program. She is EMS Fellowship and Emergency Medicine Residency trained at Western Michigan University School of Medicine in Kalamazoo, MI. Prior to medical school, Dr. Raubenolt was a volunteer EMT/Firefighter and Spanish teacher.

Steve Robertson, FI - Steve has been in the fire service for 26 years. He is a state certified Fire Safety instructor as well as a member of the State of Ohio Fire Training committee. In addition, Steve is a national instructor for Rapid Intervention Training and Associates. He is a HOT instructor at FDIC and the lead instructor of the Street Smart Engine class at State fire school. Steve currently serves as the Lieutenant on Engine Company 18 here in Columbus.

Mike Smith, Paramedic, CCP, EMSI - Michael has been involved with EMS for 26 years with experience as a volunteer, private provider, county 911 service, Emergency Department, Fire based EMS, Aero medicine, outreach education and basic paramedic training. Currently, Michael is employed as a firefighter/paramedic with the City of Grandview Heights, Ohio Division of Fire and Outreach critical care educator for Grant Medical Center's LifeLink.

Eric Sribnick, MD, PhD - Dr. Eric Sribnick grew up in Columbia, South Carolina. He attended Medical University of South Carolina where he obtained an MD and a PhD in molecular biology. He completed residency and pediatric fellowship in neuro surgery at Emory University. His research and clinical focus is in neuro trauma.

Mike Stinson, Paramedic - Mike Stinson is an active duty Paramedic in Virginia. He has been assigned to a local and regional Technical Rescue Team for over 10 years and is certified as a Structure Collapse Technician. Mike also served as a Field Training Officer (FTO) and provides training to his department as well as local law enforcement agencies regularly. Mike has nearly 20 years experience as an Advanced Life Support provider and is also a graduate of the Hampton Roads Fire Officer Training Academy. He is also an active member of the Special Operations Medical Association (SOMA). Additionally, Mike has successfully graduated from the Counter Narcotics and Terrorism Operations Medical Support (CONTOMS) program and is currently assigned as a Tactical Paramedic for the past six years.

Scott Swickard, MSN, ACNP - Scott is an Acute Care Nurse Practitioner, and the Clinical Operations Manager for Cleveland Clinic's Critical Care Transport team. He has worked in Emergency and Critical Care Transport Services since 1989. Scott was part of the original design team for the novel Mobile Stroke Treatment Unit, and has oversight over its continued operations.