Emergency Medicine Board Review Course - 30th Year!

Overview

Ohio ACEP, Florida Emergency Medicine Foundation (FEMF) and the Florida College of Emergency Physicians (FCEP) present the Emergency Medicine Board Review course, which will be February 6-10, 2014 at the Rosen Plaza Hotel, Orlando, Florida. This is a great opportunity to interact with emergency physicians, residents, and other healthcare providers from all over the country.

Ohio ACEP developed and presented this course for 30 years in Ohio. In 2013, a partnership evolved between Ohio ACEP and FEMF and FCEP, and now this premier board review course is offered in Florida!

The majority of attendees are experienced emergency medicine physicians preparing for recertification or for general review, residents who have completed an emergency medicine residency program, and advanced practice providers who treat urgent medical conditions. The attendees also represent diverse geographic locations, including many states and international locations.

Exhibit Rules & Regulations

It is the responsibility of the exhibitor's contact person to share the rules and regulations with your on-site booth personnel.

1. Assignment of Space. FEMF will assign space starting with premium areas to higher level sponsors and companies with completed applications and full payment based upon date of receipt.
2. Cancellations with a refund, minus $150 fee, will be made if received prior to January 6, 2014. After January 6, 2014, no refunds will be issued.
3. Restrictions. All exhibits are table top only unless otherwise noted. No full floor displays are allowed due to space restrictions.
4. Security. Exhibitors are responsible for safeguarding their goods. Ohio ACEP/FEMF will not be liable for items lost or stolen during overnight hours. Exhibitors should make arrangements ahead of time for the storage of booth materials. All exhibitors must wear the official exhibitor's name tag for admission and while exhibiting.
5. Shipping and Set Up. All materials should be sent to the event location. Instructions, set-up times, and information will be sent with exhibit confirmation. Hotel fees may apply.
6. Giveaways. Exhibiting companies are permitted to distribute giveaways. All giveaways must be approved by Ohio ACEP/FEMF. Removal of items not pre-approved will be strictly enforced.
7. Sales. The purpose of commercial exhibits is to further the education of attendees through product and service displays and demonstrations. Direct selling is acceptable as long as the product is pre-approved by Ohio ACEP/FEMF. Products must not be in direct competition with OHACEP products. A sales list should be provided to Ohio ACEP for approval prior to the event.
8. Management. Ohio ACEP/FEMF reserves the right to interpret, amend and enforce these regulations as it deems appropriate to ensure the success of the exhibition.
9. Attendee Address List. A printed copy of the attendee addresses will be provided to each exhibiting company. It is against the Ohio ACEP/FEMF policies to provide the list in an electronic format.
10. Promotion. Product-promotion material is prohibited during CME Activity and must be kept separate from CME.

By applying for exhibit space or support, I agree to comply with all conditions and regulations outlined in the prospectus.
